

Baggage Master	Handles luggage at the train station.
Bar Keeper	The person who owns a bar.
Binder	Makes books by hand.
Blacksmith	This occupation involving and repairing things made of iron, such as horseshoes and tools.
Bookseller	Is someone who sells books.
Brick Mason	Builds structures with bricks.
Butcher	Prepares meat to be sold as steaks, chops, sausage, cold cuts.
Butler	Is the chief male servant of a household.
Cigar Maker	Hand rolls cigars either at home or in a factory.
Compositor	The person who sets the type in a printing press.
Confectioner	Makes and sells candy usually from his or her shop.
Cotton Buyer	This person bought cotton from farmers in large quantities on behalf of textile mills.
Confectioner	Is a man who either owns a dairy farm and sells milk products or works on a dairy farm.
Draughtsman	Draftsman who prepares technical drawings.
Drayman	The driver of a horse or mule driven dray (a low, flat-bed wagon) used to transport goods.
Feeder	A person responsible for feeding animals for slaughter.
Framer	A person who makes frames for paintings or photographs.
Fruit Peddler	Fruit peddlers sold fresh fruit from a cart either door to door or from the street.
Hackman	A hackman chauffeured people around driving a horse and a hack for a fee.
Hostler	The person hired by a stable to take care of the horses.
Lamplighter	When street lights used gas instead of electricity, a lamplighter hand lit all of the the street lamps.
Laundress	This is a woman who washed clothes for other people usually in her home.
Laundryman	A man who launders clothes and linens, or deliver them to customers.
Lineman	Railroad companies hired lots of linemen to repair and monitor the railroad tracks.
Master	A skilled tradesman or craftsman.
Money Broker	An intermediary who arranges short-term loans usually in large amounts for borrowers.
Motorman	The person who drove the streetcars in Charlotte was called a motorman.
Moulder	A person who makes moulds or molds for metal work or brick making was called a moulder.
Operator	At this time, an operator was needed to connect telephone calls.
Overseer	Is someone who works on farm and makes sure the laborers or farm workers do their job.
Paper Hanger	Someone who hangs wall paper.
Photographer	A person who takes photographs of people and events then develops the film and sells pictures.
Plasterer	Someone who prepares a mixture of plaster of paris and coats the walls in homes and offices.
Postmaster	The person who runs the post office. At this time, a post office could be in a store or a home.

Pressman	A pressman is a printing machine operator who operates the press to print information on paper.
Printer	Owner of a publishing company or a print shop and hires pressmen and compositors.
Railway Postal Clerk	Is the person responsible for the mail on a train.
Rural Mail Carrier	This is what they called a mail man who delivered the mail in the county not the city.
Sawyer	A person who cuts or saws wood into lumber either in a saw pit or above ground or in a sawmill.
Seamstress	A woman who sews all kinds of garments either in her home or in a factory.
Shoemaker	Has the skills and training to make or repair shoes by hand.
Stamper	A person who crushes ore in mines or pounds metal into a design or pounds cloth.
Stationer	A person who owns a store that sells stationery or writing paper.
Steam Fitter	Someone who lays out, assembles, fabricates, maintains and repairs piping systems which carry water.
Stenographer	A person who records conversations in a coded language called shorthand.
Street Roller	Drives a machine that flattens streets under construction.
Switchman	Before computers, a railroad worker manually turned railway switches or points on a railroad.
Tailor	A man highly skilled in designing and sewing gentlemen suits and shirts.
Tailoress	A highly skilled seamstress.
Teamster	A teamster drove a team of horses to transport goods. Later truck drivers were called teamsters.
Timekeeper	The person in a business who documents employees' hours and performs payroll-related duties.
Tinner	Someone who makes or repairs items made of tin.
Traveling Salesman	A man who travels across states and even the country to sell all kinds of goods & services.
Wagoner	Drives a horse-drawn wagon.
Watchman	Someone who polices city streets, a business or railroad yard to insure that no crimes are committed.
Yard Conductor	A railroad employee who directs a switch engine crew under the yardmaster's instructions.
Yardmaster	The railroad employee in charge of all the work that takes place in the rail yard.