

James as my agent with said John Smith the father of which said Negro I give & bequeath unto my said son James A. the under in hand to be divided among his children as he shall think proper at his decease -

" It is my will & pleasure that all my land, lying on the left bank of some tract lately adjoining to the old agreeable to equality & generosity with said John Smith by his a man man indefinitely chosen by my testament -

Item I give & bequeath unto my well beloved son Alexander all that division of the land on which he shall live as above described on which he shall dwell to him his heirs & assigns forever I also give & bequeath unto my son John Alexander one Negro girl named Ann in token of the property he purchased towards the mountain land -

Item I give & bequeath unto my beloved son Hogeback Alexander all that other division of my land on which he shall live as above described and on which he shall dwell to him his heirs and assigns forever -

Item I give & bequeath unto my beloved son James Alexander and Horse & saddle one bed & bedding and the sum of one hundred pounds to be paid by my two youngest sons to whom I give the land on which I now live -

" It is my will & pleasure that the plantation on which I now dwell consisting of two things having each other be divided in to two equal divisions paying down as yet to equality and quantity Horse & furniture by them or their own choice by my Executors for that purpose -

Item I give & bequeath unto my beloved son Jack Alexander one of the above described divisions of the land on which I now live his choice of those divisions when divided as above directed to him his heirs & assigns forever and one bed and bedding his Horse and Saddle - Item I give & bequeath unto my beloved son Edward Alexander all the other above described divisions of the land on which I now live when divided as above directed to him his heirs and assigns -

Said sons Jack & Edward pay unto their brother James the sum of £100 pounds as soon as conveniently may be