

"The DAY of DAYS!"

You Have A Discharge:

Treasure it! It is your diploma for your heroism and sacrifice. You have helped win the "Battle of Freedom" for us, buddy, and we are glad you are home. Wear your Veteran's Service Button with pride.

Have It Registered:

Go to the Court House and register your discharge—(at no cost). You may need to refer to it years hence. It is valuable—as if you didn't know. We want you to have a permanent record.

That Draft Board Once Again:

Report within five days after you arrive in Charlotte for about five minutes—it is the law—then you are on your own. Start at once to see your friends. Take up your favorite hobby. Have some fun and get organized for that life you have been fighting for. It's here.

Get Those Civies:

Ah-h-h-h at last, a loud tie and socks to match, an honest to goodness hat, and a suit that has "the personal touch." If you burst out in a riot of colors, the women in your life will understand. You've dreamed of this. Don't forget that you must have "Sunday Clothes," and also work clothes. Now you are really home—to stay.

Get On A Payroll:

Welcome back into the business world! You have been active—you'll want your job back to stay "on the beam." It is here for you—or a new and better one.

You—in your job—your profession—will help start Charlotte off in its big Post-War Program towards a bigger and better city, for you to live in and help run.

FEATURES for

Your Home Town, Charlotte, North Carolina has many features ready for you.

Recreation embodies activities at the Memorial Stadium, the Municipal Swimming Pool, golf courses, new parks and playgrounds, Country Clubs, and the Y. M. C. A. together with books and magazines at the Library and art exhibits at the Mint Museum.

Charlotte's three Radio Stations, the Little Theater, and many movie theaters are for your entertainment.

For you and your families, the public schools, Queens College, and Johnson C. Smith University provide convenient educational facilities, and the Public Library is designed to serve as a "University of the People."

HAPPINESS

Charlotte is a city of fine churches—a church of your choice awaits you.

Clubs abound in the city, both civic and social. Social welfare agencies stand ready to assist you in any difficulty.

Airports are expanding with bus and train service ready to carry you anywhere.

Hospitals and medical service are the best in the South.

With all of this, the Charlotte Planning Committee and your City Council are examining every need for a Greater Charlotte—with abundant features for your happiness.

Oh, yes—the Gals, they have been waiting for you—AND HOW!

G.I. JOES and JANES"*

CITY HALL, CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA

"Let it be your pride, therefore, to show all men everywhere not only what good soldiers you are, but also what good men you are. . . . Let us set for ourselves a standard so high that it will be a glory to live up to it, and then let us live up to it and add a new laurel to the crown of America."
