To Our Service Men, Greetings:

We are happy to throw open the doors of the Churches of Charlotte to you, and bid you a welcome in the name of our Lord. We honor the uniform which you wear, and with you pledge ourselves to the united defense of our country from enemies within and without.

To those who are lonely and need companionship, to those who are tired and need rest, to those who mourn and need comfort, to those who have sinned and need forgiveness, our churches open wide their doors, our ministers, priests, rabbis are at your call.

The Church is the heart of our democracy which our enemies would destroy. It is the foundation of the home front.

Through the Church you have unity and fellowship with friends here, the dear ones back home, those who have gone before, those yet to come, and with your Lord whose strength can be yours in the days ahead.

Let attendance at divine worship be a part of your week-end with us. We welcome you into our homes for food, shelter, fellowship. We welcome you into our Churches for worship, the bread of life, divine fellowship.

Yours in Eternal Service,

THE CHURCHES OF CHARLOTTE
