

CHARLES RAVEN BROCKMANN, MECKLENBURG PRESBYTERY: A HISTORY, INVENTORY, 1962

[1 box]

ABSTRACT

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg was formed in 1869, and encompassed the counties of "Anson, Union, and such part of Mecklenburg as lies South and West of a line beginning at Beaties [sic] Ford on the Catawba River and running thence with the road to Concord town until said road meets the Cabarrus County line, Lincoln, Gaston, Cleaveland [sic], Polk, Rutherford, Buncombe, Henderson, Transylvania, Madison, Haywood, Jackson, Clay, Macon, and Cherokee." Included within those counties were 38 churches, with 28 ministers and candidates among them.
